

Fraxinus ornus

MANNA ASH TREE

This is a large deciduous tree growing to 15-25 m tall with smooth dark grey bark. It has dense foliage rounded growth habit. The dark pinnate leaves turn yellow to a purplish colour in autumn. It has showy white flowers that cluster together and have a lovely scent.

A beautiful year-round specimen tree planted mainly for autumn colour.

Prefers a deep loam for best results. Adaptable to a range of sites but best in full sun position. Tolerates moderate drought and most conditions.
