

Fraxinus pennsylvanica 'Lednaw-Aerial'

AERIAL GREEN ASH TREE

Outstanding lustrous green foliage that maintains a healthy appearance during summer. Grows well in drought conditions. Foliage turns yellow in autumn. It's bark is dark grey/brown, becoming ridged and furrowed as the tree matures.

A nice feature tree that is suitable for residential and commercial applications including streetscapes and parks.

Prefers full sun and an open position in the landscape. Has moderate drought and frost tolerance.
