

Pinus roxburghii

CHIR PINE TREE

This is a large tree native to the Himalayas. Its leaves are yellowish-green and needle-like, and bark is red-brown, thick and deeply fissured at the base of the trunk, thinner and flaky in the upper crown. Produces cones.

For more information on this large tree, please contact the office on 03 9796 8308.

For more information on this large tree, please contact the office on 03 9796 8308.

Foliage Evergreen

Form Horizontal
Branching

Mature Size 30 x 15m

Family Pinaceae

Giant

Evergreen

Horizontal Branching

Specimen

Disclaimer: The material contained on the Speciality Trees website is for general information only. Although much care has been taken to provide the information on its website, Speciality Trees does not warrant the accuracy, completeness or currency of this information and its suitability to your needs. All material listed on the Speciality Trees website, its associated links and product sheets are varieties either ready for sale or in production. This is an information source and not confirmation of availability. It is strongly recommended that users enquire about product availability independently of this source.