

Syzygium australe 'Resilience'

RESILIENCE LILLY PILLY TREE

Growing to 5m, this is a great selection for hedging. It is a compact specimen with tightly packed pale green foliage that emerges with a reddish bronze tinge. It is a very popular Lilly Pilly selection.

This is a fast growing Lilly Pilly excellent for hedging and/or screening to 5m tall.

Prefers full sun and will tolerate light frosts once established. Likes a humus rich soil. Tip prune while young to encourage dense foliage growth, prune twice yearly or as required.
